

WEYBURN'S LENTEN MEATLESS POTLUCK

by Mary Ann Flaaten, St. Vincent de Paul

The St. Vincent de Paul Parish community in Weyburn gathered for fellowship & Lenten spiritual reflection. A time set aside for faith & to focus on the lenten journey of the holy week remaining. The scene was set with visuals that depicted the season of lent with the theme "Jesus knocking at the Door". Bookmarks made by Fr Gerry with the theme photo & a prayer on the back were available to all. Wonderful potluck dishes were enjoyed, followed by a musical reflection on Fr. David Cottingham & Deacon Bob Williston's song "How Will I Ever Let You Go?" along with a visual U-Tube presentation of Jesus' story "Who am I," by Casting Crowns". We concluded the evening with the stations of the cross.
