CAMP LEMIEUX IS CELEBRATING 60 YEARS THIS SUMMER!

As the years progressed Camp Lemieux — a youth camp centred on engaging youth in the Catholic teachings — has seen many changes but, one thing has remained constant: a dedication to the Catholic Youth providing them with a fun-filled week. Originally established in the Gravelbourg Diocese, the camp now lies within the Archdiocese.

A Reunion will be held at the Camp, just south of Swift Current on Lac Pelletier, the weekend of July 31 and August 1, 2010. All Camp Alumni are invited to reconnect, reminisce and celebrate being young at heart.

On Saturday, July 31st, 2010 at 3pm Mass will be held at the camp with Bishop Don Bolen. Complete registration and event details may be found at www.camplemieux.com by e-mailing 60th@camplemieux.com or phoning 773-8260. A variety of youth camps for anyone aged 6 to 18 also run throughout the summer, including Counsellor in training program, Kidz camp, senior weeks, a shortened week and regular youth camps. Not to mention there are plenty of volunteer opportunities. Activities at the camp range from arts programs to outdoor adventures in archery, waterfront, mud pits and carnivals to many more.

YOUTH GET FIRED UP CELEBRATING THE CENTENNIAL!

Jesse Manibusin says he is shy and reserved but a microphone and an audience animates him and he in turn animates his audience. Manibusin was the presenter at the Archdiocesan Centennial Youth Rally held April 17 at Holy Redeemer Church. The rally's theme, The Fire of the Holy Spirit is in us "GET FIRED UP!" He did indeed fire up the Grades seven to twelve teens, from 13 different communities.

Manibusin is from Two by Two Ministries, headquartered in Grapevine, Texas. He travels the world spreading his love of Christ and the Holy Spirit. He came to Saskatchewan April 15-17 at the request of the Archdiocesan Youth Ministry and the Regina Roman Catholic School Board. He presented a music ministry workshop in Regina April 15; performed for about 1,000 Grade Nine students April 16 at the Conexus Art Centre and was in Swift Current on the 17th.

Using his talent as a guitar artist, his engaging voice and humour he had the teens and adults responding to Manibusin's encouragement about life, church and appreciating the Holy Spirit within everyone.
